Ultimate: Mechanical Engineer

Age: 17

Height: 5'7

Weight: 67kg

Gender: Female

Personality: She is a naturally kind and talkative person who tries to help anyone in need. She can come across arrogant when it comes to her specialties and solving things. She also has trust issues.

Looks:

Backstory: Luna was born into a financial crisis where they struggled to pass by. Her mother died at her birth due to complications leaving her father to take care of her. Due to the economic crisis in their home, they migrated to her mother's homeland; Japan. There things got better: her father remarried and had a baby boy who she loves and had a healthy family life. Meanwhile at school she worked hard and got engrossed into mechanics and engineering. After developing skills at robotics club, she managed to develop her own A.I. giving her her ultimate. And her eyes? Don't ask
